News for you!!! December 2022

Did you know Kaleva Art Gallery is celebrating a 25th anniversary this weekend? I know we are late, please excuse us. The gallery offers a great variety of arts and crafts for sale at reasonable prices. Hand-made by artist in and around Kaleva. There will be a student display, a history of the gallery, a daily drawing for a great prize basket and refreshments! Saturday December 10th, 10-4pm; Sunday December 11th, 12-4pm.

The Bottle House Museum is hosting open house on Saturday, December 10th, 12-4 pm. Visit from Santa, and a gift for each child!

On Saturday, December 17th the bottle House will offer a "Taste of Finland", serving a variety of tasty Finnish foods. 12-4pm.

Winter Solstice On Wednesday, December 21st Luminaries will be again placed in Kaleva Cemetery. They will be assembled across from the cemetery and set out starting at 4pm. Lots of help is needed to put candles on grave sites to honor the dearly departed. This event, on the winter solstice, is a 20+ year tradition in which many have helped and enjoyed the sight of 1000 candles lighting the longest night of the year.*

Bethany Lutheran is hosting a soup supper to follow this event.

We hope you will join in the activities happening in your community. Thank you from Kaleva Historical Society.

Kaleva Finnish Heritage Days is actively doing events every month. We received an amazing donation of a pig to roast next year and We are pushing to get more info out there. Please stay tuned.

January 15th at KT will be a Euchre Tournament. Registration opens at 2:30 and started at 3pm. All skill levels welcome. Please call Sandy at 231-362-3621.

Sunday, January 22nd Soup luncheon and bake sale will be 11-1pm at the Maple Grove Township Community Center.

We are hosting painting parties every month and 25% of the profits go straight to the Kaleva Heritage Days!
